

Online National Working Day

SEND Reviews: implications for SI provision

Tuesday 6 July 2021 10:00 - 15:15

Online via Microsoft Teams

AGENDA

10:15	Platform opens
10:25	Welcome and introduction	Lindsey Rousseau NatSIP Facilitator
10:30	Session 1: SEND update from DfE	André Imich SEND Professional Adviser, DfE
11:20	Session 2: Ofsted report on SEND and Local Area Inspections	Nick Whittaker HMI Specialist Adviser SEND, Ofsted
12:00	Break
12:15	Reflections following the national updates and implications for the SI sector.	Brian Lamb NatSIP Strategy and Policy Associate
12:30	NatSIP update and introduction to Working Group activities	Lindsey Rousseau
12:45	Lunch break
13:30	Session 3: Working Groups (select one)	Led by NatSIP colleagues
	a) SI SEND support for learners in mainstream 0-16 yrs: SI specialist services and the graduated response (assess/plan/do/review) model. What does 'good' look like? b) EHC Plans: The role of specialist SI provision (schools, resource bases and support services) for learners 0-16 yrs: QTSIs in EHCPs and statutory processes. What should Ofsted be measuring? c) Early Years: ensuring SI children 0-2 yrs and the home learning environment are not overlooked in a school-led SEND system
14:15	Session 4: Working Groups (select one)	Led by NatSIP colleagues
	a) SI SEND support for learners in mainstream 0-16 yrs (see above) b) EHC Plans: The role of specialist SI provision (schools, resource bases and support services) for learners 0-16 yrs (see above) c) Post 16/Transition to Adulthood for SI young people: ensuring good practice and specialist input in career/transition support
15:00	Session 5: Conclusions, SI sector response to DfE/Ofsted and next steps
15:15	Evaluations and event close	